BATTLE OF THE BEERS

Shakespeare Stout has advanced to Round IV and we need YOU to vote TODAY, Tuesday April 1st ~ so what if it is April Fools Day, this is no bunkum... Polls are open until 9pm PST.
<http://www.realbeer.com/battleofthebeers>

To get to Round IV, Shakespeare Stout beat Wild Goose's Oatmeal Stout, Barney Flats from Anderson Valley, and Ommegang's flagship beer. Today, on a fateful All Fools Day, the Bard is pitted against a formidable challenger, DogFish Head's 90 Minute IPA...So we ask you to help make Rogue History with a few clicks of your mouse. The winner will advance to the semifinals later this week...tell your friends and family to vote, please! GO SHAKESPEARE...Vote today! <http://www.realbeer.com/battleofthebeers>

BAGPIPERS VISIT PDX

West Linn (Oregon) police Sgt. Neil Hennelly, who is also president of the Portland Metro Police and Fire Emerald Society, a social organization of public safety professionals interested in Irish culture, will be in the Pearl District of Portland to participate in First Thursday on Thursday, April 3rd. The Emerald's bagpipers begin at 5:30 pm. The group will launch a fundraiser for Sgt. Damon Coates at Rogue, located at NW Flanders and 14th Avenue, with performance art--a full-on bagpipe performance by the members, and culinary art--featuring Sgt. Hennelly's homemade Irish soda bread. Rogue will be selling the homemade Irish soda bread for $3.99, all proceeds going to Sgt. Coates. For more details, contact the Rogue Pub in PDX at 503-222-5910. A press release is on-line:

CELEBRATE THE END OF PROHIBITION

Monday, April 7 is hereby called: New Beer's Day (again, no bunkum!)
Join us in celebrating the 70th Anniversary of the Repeal of Prohibition at
(1) the Rogue Public House in Portland's Pearl District, (2) Rogue's Issaquah BrewHouse, and (3) the Bayfront Public House in Newport.
All three Rogue Public Houses will be tapping a firkin of cask-conditioned

American Amber Ale at 5:30 pm on April 7th. Please join us!

Literature will be available about Prohibition and the effects it had on America's brewing community. Factoid: Americans drank 46.5 million gallons of 3.2% beer within 24 hours of prohibition ending, seventy years ago.

Small brewers across America will be celebrating New Beer's Day on April 7, 2003 (New Beer's Eve is Sunday April 6th)! Details can be found on-line at The Brewers' Association of America web page: http://207.8.155.214/press\_releases/pr\_repeal.shtml
A press release from Rogue Ales for one of our three Pub events is on-line at: <http://www.rogue.com/pdfs/prohibpr.pdf>

PEACH and GRANITE STATE NEWS

Folks in Atlanta have been able to enjoy Rogue Ales for years. We've expanded our distribution to other parts of Georgia, so folks in Macon, Savannah, Albany, Columbus, Valdosta and Augusta can now enjoy Rogue too. Ask for Rogue wherever craft beers are sold!

Folks in the Granite State will soon be able to find Rogue at select retailers in New Hampshire! If you have questions about where to find Rogue, or would like to offer suggestions about your favorite store or restaurant that should be selling Rogue, send us an email at brewdawg@rogue.com or send a reply to this newsletter.
