FOOD AND BEER

Holidays revolve around sharing with our friends and family and that includes food and beer! Several beer dinner menus have been added to the bottom of the news page, offering some food & beer pairing ideas! <http://www.rogue.com/news-events.html>
Each menu pairs Rogue Ales with a multi-course dinner. We welcome your questions and suggestions about pairing food and beer.

Down the road from the brewery in Newport is the Oregon Oyster Farms, where Yaquina Bay oysters are cultivated and harvested. These succulent bivalves are wonderful with Shakespeare Stout!

Julia Moskin wrote an interesting article on oysters and their holiday appeal in the December 11 issue of the New York Times, Dining Out section. According to Julia, Yaquina Bays, who belong to the Pacific or Western family of oysters (crassostrea gigas), are slightly sweeter and less metallic than the Eastern or Atlantic oysters (like Blue Point), with a creamier texture.
